The Amazon Kindle is a convenient, portable reading device. It is the size of a paperback and capable of holding up to 1,500 books. A student can highlight sections of text, make notes anywhere in the text, or even make a clipping of the entire page if desired – it all shows up under ‘clippings’, for easy retrieval later. In addition, unfamiliar words can be instantly defined using the onboard dictionary. The chance to use this device is a privilege that we are able to provide to students in this school provided that the students use extra caution and responsibility. Each Kindle is valued at $152 plus shipping and taxes. For this reason we require a parental signature before a Kindle can be assigned to a student.

Parent Responsibilities and Permission

I am authorizing the assignment of a Kindle to my child. I understand that it is to be used as a tool for reading and learning and that my child will comply with the CIS Acceptable Use Policy. I understand that my child may lose future loan privileges of the device if the Kindle is either damaged or not returned in a timely manner.
